

ings, Mr. Kirkby was guilty of gross misrepresentation in his speech before the National Business League at the Congress hotel yesterday.

And in that case, Mr. Kirkby must answer the charge of trying to induce man to war upon his brother man by the use of that careful suppressing of the truth and suggestion of the false, which is worse than most deliberate lie.

—O—O—OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

